Membership Cycle
Membership is on a 12-month calendar year cycle. Applications for membership can only be submitted during the application cycle which typically begins in August.

Membership Dues
Membership fees are due 30 days after receipt of your notification letter. Dues of $5,000 cover the cost of IPEC organizational membership for a full calendar year.

Membership Benefits
Through programming, communication, and partnerships, IPEC provides members with a key forum to build peer-to-peer relationships, exchange information, and participate in setting the agenda for the future of health care.

Benefit from Peer-to-Peer Exchanges
Members are invited to exclusive events, including IPEC’s biannual Council Meeting, where IPEC Council Members meet with founders, senior-level executives, policy makers, and healthcare experts in Washington, DC to discuss the top issues facing interprofessional education and practice.

Participate in Efforts to Promote Interprofessional Education
Your participation helps shape the IPEC Council’s efforts to promote, encourage, and support efforts to prepare future health professionals.
IPEC ORGANIZATIONAL MEMBERSHIP FAQS

Ensure Your Association’s Perspective is Represented
IPEC members will be listed as an organizational member on the IPEC website. As the advocate for interprofessional collaborative practice, IPEC ensures that policy makers and key influencers are aware of the important contribution interprofessional education makes to addressing the health care needs of the nation.

Obtain the Benefits of Shared Knowledge Across Disciplines
IPEC provides a vital forum for our members to share ideas and examine emerging trends and challenges. Members gain access to IPEC faculty development institutes, leadership development programs, webinars, and members-only communications.

How to Apply
Applications for IPEC Organizational Membership must be submitted online. Materials should be uploaded as individual attachments on association letterhead. Applicants must provide the following information:
